

TE WERA ME TE AHI

Japan – New Zealand Geothermal Workshop

Monday 20 November 2017

INTRODUCTION

As the Māori economy grows, Māori enterprises seek to build relationships with investment partners for mutual benefits.

Māori enterprises have some special features, including a strong platform of cultural values, an intergenerational perspective on economic development and a particular focus on enduring relationships.

Combined with the business acumen of Māori economic leaders, these special features provide unique entry points and opportunities for investors.

I welcome you to come and learn more about doing business with Māori in the geothermal to sustain a future with us in the next 10 years.

Chairman of Waiariki Maori Geothermal Advisory Group

http://www.nzherald.co.nz/nz/news/article.cfm?c_id=1&objectid=11919601

KAITIAKITANGA

- Theme: Kaitiakitanga (guardianship and protection) of hot spring systems
- Geothermal environment from the perspective of indigenous Māori
- Pukeroa Oruawhata Tribal Developments